MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Office of Training Weekly Report

1. Director Visits ISOLATION

Mr. Helms's visit [REDACTED] on 27 October involved a rather full day of visiting various areas and talking with many people. As originally intended his visit was informal. A highlight was a 20-minute talk to a combined audience of the instructional staff and students attending the five different courses in session. He praised the Office of Training and its work, paid a special compliment to the COS and to his fellow staffers, and plans a return visit.

General Cushman will substitute for Mr. Helms on the last day of the course (14 November). Preceding him will be Representative John O. Marsh, a member of the House Appropriations Committee, whose appearance was arranged for OTR by the Legislative Counsel's office.

3. Chief, Operations Services Staff Briefed on Career Training Program

25X1A9a [REDACTED] Chief/OSS/DDP, spent two hours with the Chief, CTP in discussing the facets of selecting, training, and placement of Career Trainees--a discussion mutually agreed to as highly beneficial to better understanding and closer cooperation between the two Staffs.

4. Delay Continues in Repair of Language School Quarters

Although the Arlington Towers management indicated that internal repairs of the LS facility would begin on Monday, such did not happen. The delay appears to be rooted in the Management's determination to have confirmation of continued occupancy. GSA, it is reported, has not as yet guaranteed a permanent resident--Language School or any other.

5. Training Indebtedness Resolved

In a memorandum to the Chief, Certification and Liaison Division, Office of Finance, OTR has identified [REDACTED] (former O/C 25X1A9a employee) indebtedness for his unfinished service after two years of sponsored training at Harvard as $4,496.64. The cost of his training, less salary, was $6,551.84. It is understood that the payment will be
